- 6 Our charges
- 6.1 The basis for our charges will be set out in your client care letter.
- 6.2 Fixed fee services:
- a) If we charge on a fixed fee basis, this is based on the assumption that the work will be completed without any complications arising. If any unforeseen additional work is required, or if you change your instructions to us, we will either provide a revised fixed fee or agree that any additional work will be charged at the hourly rate of the person(s) dealing with your matter. - 6.3 Hourly rate services:
- a) If we charge on an hourly rate basis, hourly rates vary according to the experience of the person handling your matter. The hourly rates that apply to your matter are set out in your client care letter.
  - b) We review our hourly rates from time to time, we will notify you in writing of any increase. If you do not accept the new rates after review, we reserve the right not to continue acting for you.

- c) You will be charged for time spent on your matter which will include: any meetings with you (and any third parties); considering, preparing and working on papers; correspondence; making and receiving telephone calls; research; internal consultations; and travelling. Time is recorded and charged in six-minute units at the applicable hourly rate. Therefore, this is the minimum amount of time we will charge for any piece of work undertaken on your matter.
- d) We add VAT to our fees applicable at the time that the work is completed.
- e) We reserve the right to charge separately for photocopying, printing, telephone calls, faxes, electronic funds transfers, catering and other support services, and travel, courier and other incidental expenses. Where applicable, we will charge VAT on our charges and expenses.
- f) Where we give you an estimate of costs, it is a guide to assist you in budgeting for your legal costs and is not fixed. We will do our best to keep you updated with the best costs information that we are able to provide at any one time. If you would like to agree a ceiling figure, above which we will not incur any further costs without your consent, please let us know as soon as possible.

7 Disbursements

7.1 All disbursements (expenses) which we incur in working on your matter will be payable by you in addition to our charges. Examples of these expenses include but are not limited to Land Registry and Companies House fees; search fees; Stamp Duty Land Tax (and similar taxes); fees charged by experts, agents, couriers and barristers; court fees; travel expenses and subsistence; international telephone calls; use of on-line databases; and telegraphic transfer fees. VAT is payable on certain expenses, which you will need to pay in addition.

8 Paying our bills

- 8.1 The frequency of billing will depend on the nature of a matter. The frequency of billing for your matter is set out in your client care letter.
- 8.2 In some cases, particularly when litigation is involved or when we may need to incur substantial expense on your behalf, we may require you to provide a payment on account (payment in advance of us carrying the work out). Where we ask you for payment on account, we are not obliged to carry out any work on your matter until that payment has been made. A payment on account is not an estimate or fixing of charges, and our total charges may exceed the payment on account.
- 8.3 You must tell us straightaway if you have any form of legal expenses insurance that you think might pay for our bills.
- 8.4 If a third party agrees to pay our bills, you will remain responsible to us for payment until those bills have been paid in full.
- 8.5 Unless agreed otherwise, our bills are payable within 14 days of delivery. If we do not receive payment during this time, then we reserve the right to charge you interest on the outstanding amount at a rate which is 8%. Interest will accrue from one month after the date of delivery of the bill to the date of payment and will be payable on demand. We may also retain any papers and documents belonging to you while payment for our bills is outstanding.

- 8.6 All bills, whenever they are submitted, will be for final bills for the period to which they relate but this does not prevent us from invoicing you for expenses for that period on a subsequent bill.
- 8.7 Our preference is for payment to be made by bank transfer to our client account, or by debit/credit card payment over the telephone to our cashier's department, who can be contacted on 01253 362510. We do not accept payment in cash. If you circumvent this policy by depositing cash direct with our bank, we reserve the right to charge for any additional checks we deem necessary regarding the source of the funds.
- 8.8 If we are providing services to more than one person whether individuals, companies or entities and we are asked to deliver bills only to one person, those bills will remain payable in full by all persons that we provide services to under this contract.
- 8.9 Where we hold money on your behalf, because we have received funds on your behalf or you have made payment on account, we may use this money towards payment of our bills. We will advise you if we do this.
- 8.10 Where we have to pay money to you, it will be paid by cheque or bank transfer. It will not be paid in cash or to a third party.
- 8.11 You can make a complaint about a bill using the firm's complaints procedure which is available upon request. You may also have the right to complain to the Legal Ombudsman (see clause 2524.11) or to apply to the court for an assessment of the bill under part III of the Solicitors Act 1974.
- 8.12 If an account remains unpaid and we commence legal proceedings against you in order to recover the sums you owe us then we will be entitled to recover from you the legal costs that we incur in connection with those proceedings at our standard hourly rates, together with all disbursements (including fees of counsel and any other lawyers engaged by us in our attempts to recover payment from you).

9 Contentious matters

- 9.1 You will be responsible to us for our fees and disbursements regardless of any order obtained for payment of your costs by another party. Our costs are likely to exceed the sum which you could recover from any other party to the proceedings. You should also bear in mind that you may be ordered to pay the costs of the other party.

10 Your money

10.1 Interest Policy

- a) Where we hold money in a client account for you, the SRA Accounts Rules require us to account to you for interest where it is fair and reasonable to do so in all the circumstances.

This is typically where we are holding a substantial amount of money for a significant period of time.

- b) Our interest policy shall be kept under review and may change if the Bank of England base rate increases or decreases. Please refer to our interest policy, available on our website: (<https://www.bbelaw.co.uk/wp-content/uploads/2024/07/POL-CORP-1005-Interest-Policy-Barker-Booth-Eastwood.pdf>)
- c) For cleared funds paid into a client account, the firm shall account for interest unless one of the following circumstances apply:
  - i) The amount of interest calculated on the balance held is £50 or less; or
  - ii) The client money was held in cleared funds in client account for a period of five working days or less.
- d) We will usually account to you for interest under our interest policy at the conclusion of your matter.

10.2 Banking

- a) The firm operates its client accounts through Barclays Bank Plc and Arbuthnot Latham.
- b) It is unlikely that we will be held liable for losses resulting from a banking failure.
- c) The Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) is the UK's statutory compensation scheme for customers of deposit providers (banks, building societies, etc.). The FSCS can pay compensation (up to £85,000) to consumers if a deposit provider is unable, or likely to be unable, to pay claims against it. Some temporary high balances (up to £1,000,000) are also covered for up to six months; these relate to balances in transactions involving property, marriage, divorce, redundancy, unfair dismissal, personal injury, a legacy from an estate of a deceased person or money held on behalf of a deceased person for the purpose of administering their estate. Please ask for further details if you require them.
- d) The £85,000 FSCS limit applies to an individual client, so if you hold other personal monies in the same deposit-taking institution as our client account, the limit remains £85,000 in total. Some deposit-taking institutions have several brands, i.e. where the same institution is trading under different names, so you should check with your deposit provider, the FCA or a financial adviser for more information. Further information regarding the FSCS can be found at www.fscs.org.uk and their contact telephone number is 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100 (for international callers).
- e) If a banking failure occurs in relation to any deposit provider which holds money that we have deposited on your behalf, we will seek consent from you to disclose to the FSCS all relevant details in our possession about you and the money that we hold on your behalf with such a deposit provider. Please note that if you withhold consent to our disclosure of your details to the FSCS in such circumstances, you may forfeit any right you may have to receive compensation from the FSCS where a banking failure occurs in relation to a deposit provider holding money which we have deposited on your behalf.

- f) Monies held in our client account - We will not be liable to repay any money that we hold for you in our client account at Barclays Bank Plc which is lost as a result of a failure of the bank.

11 Limitation of liability

- 11.1 Our liability to you for a breach of your instructions shall be limited to £3 million pounds, unless we expressly state a higher amount in the letter accompanying these terms of business.
- 11.2 We will not be liable for any consequential, special, indirect or exemplary damages, costs or losses, or any damages, costs or losses attributable to lost profits or opportunities. We can only limit our liability to the extent the law allows. In particular, we cannot limit our liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence. Please ask if you would like us to explain any of the terms above.
- 11.3 This liability cap will apply to our aggregate liability to you together with any associated party for whom you are acting as agent in relation to the relevant matter on any basis.
- 11.4 Proportional liability: In addition to the other limitations in this document, where we and/or third parties are responsible for any loss suffered by you, our liability for that loss will be limited to a fair proportion of your total loss calculated by reference to the extent of our responsibility. If you have engaged others to represent or advise you on a matter in which we are involved and you agree with any of them that their liability to you will be limited, in order that our position is not adversely affected by any such limitation of their liability, you agree that our liability to you will not exceed the amount which would have applied in the absence of that limitation.
- 11.5 Third party liability: If you start proceedings against us for loss or damage and there is another person (for example, another adviser) who is liable (or potentially liable) to you in respect of the same loss or damage, then you will (if we so request) join them into the proceedings. This is subject to any legal prohibition against your joining them in that way.
- 11.6 We have an interest in limiting the personal liability of employees, consultants and partners. Accordingly, you agree that you will not bring any claim against any individual employee, consultant, or partner in respect of losses which you suffer or incur, arising out of or in connection with our engagement or the services we provide. The provisions of this paragraph will not limit or exclude the firm's liability for the acts or omissions of our employees, consultants, or partners. The provisions of this paragraph are intended for the benefit of our employees, consultants and partners but the terms of our engagement may be varied without the consent of all or any of those persons.
- 11.7 We can only limit our liability to the extent the law allows. In particular, we cannot limit our liability for fraud nor for death or personal injury caused by our negligence, nor for negligence in contentious business, insofar as the Solicitors Act 1974 s60(5) precludes the exclusion of such liability.

Please ask if you would like us to explain any of the terms above.

12 Rights of third parties

- 12.1 Our advice is for your benefit only. Save as expressly set out, our agreement with you is not intended to confer rights on any third parties whether pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 or otherwise.
- 12.2 No other person may see or rely on our advice without our written consent and subject to the conditions that we impose at the time.

13 Undertakings

- 13.1 The firm's policy as to the giving of an undertaking is as follows: set out the position, which will depend on whether the firm is an LLP or other incorporated entity.
- 13.2 Include if the firm is an LLP/other incorporated body: Undertakings given by or on behalf of LLPs/ other incorporated/limited entities/companies cannot be enforced by the courts as the practices in themselves are not officers of the court and therefore cannot be compelled by the court to perform the undertaking, award compensation or become subject to potential contempt proceedings in respect of the undertaking.
- 13.3 Should it be deemed necessary to provide an undertaking in your matter, our liability to you, as to the extent to which such an undertaking in the firm's name can be enforced, is limited to £3 million which has been approved by the firm's PII.

14 Storage of documents

- 14.1 After completing the work, we will be entitled to keep all your papers and documents while there is still money owed to us for fees and disbursements.
- 14.2 We will keep our file of your papers (except those papers you ask to be returned to you) in a secure storage area under our control. We will not destroy documents you ask us to deposit in safe custody. However, should any of your documents be lost or damaged as a result of events beyond our reasonable control we will not be liable for their replacement or for any resultant loss.
- 14.3 If we take papers or documents out of storage in relation to continuing or new instructions to act for you, we will not normally charge for such retrieval. However, we may charge you an administration fee of £45 + vat at 20% for time spent producing stored papers that are requested; and reading, correspondence or other work necessary to comply with your instructions in relation to the retrieved papers. Unless otherwise agreed with you in writing, those charges will be at our hourly rates applicable at that time.

15 Confidentiality and data protection

- 15.1 Our use of your information is subject to your instructions, the Data Protection Act 2018 ('DPA') and our duty of confidentiality. Therefore, we keep information passed to us confidential and will not disclose it to third parties unless expressly or implicitly authorised by you, except in the following circumstances:

  - c) if we need to notify our professional indemnity insurer of a circumstance that could lead to you making a negligence claim against the firm under the terms of our policy – in such a scenario, we will disclose information about the potential negligence we have identified on an anonymous basis in the first instance; conversely, where we need to notify our professional indemnity insurer of an actual claim for negligence being made by you, it will be taken that by lodging such a claim, you are implicitly authorising us to release your details so that we can deal effectively with such a claim;
  - d) if we are required to provide information to selected third parties (including barristers and consultants) who assist us with legal, financial, administrative, information technology and other services; or
  - e) if that information has entered the public domain other than as the result of our unlawful disclosure.
- 15.2 If we engage a third party in connection with your matter, we will put in place an agreement requiring them to treat your information as confidential.
- 15.3 The firm is the data controller (for the purposes of the DPA) of personal data that you provide to us. This means that the firm has a duty to comply with the provisions of the DPA when processing your personal data.
- 15.4 The firm has appointed Tim Fielding as its Data Protection Officer ('DPO') and he is responsible for overseeing the firm's compliance with the DPA.
- 15.5 We use the information you provide primarily for the provision of legal services to you and for related purposes including (but not limited to): updating and enhancing client records; analysis to help us manage our practice; statutory returns; and legal and regulatory compliance.
- 15.6 If you are an individual, you have rights under the DPA. These rights are:
- a) The right to be informed and the right of access – You can request a data subject access request (DSAR) by emailing our DPO at info@bbelaw.co.uk with the details of the personal data that you want to access.

If you fail to disclose all information (and if in doubt, please disclose it as it can be discounted if it is not relevant) you must accept full liability for any penalties or action or other proceedings that any authority may take against you for failing to disclose information which resulted in a duty or greater liability to pay such duty.

25 Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)

25.1 Alternative complaints bodies such as ProMediate (<http://www.promediate.co.uk/>) and Small Claims Mediation (scmreferrals@hmcts.gsi.gov.uk/ 0300 123 4593) exist which are competent to deal with complaints about legal services should both you and our firm wish to use such a scheme. We do not agree to use either of the above schemes.

26 Termination

26.1 You may end this contract (and therefore, your instructions to us) at any time by writing to us by post or email (see clause 5.1 of these terms for details). You will be liable to pay our charges up until that point. These are calculated on an hourly basis plus expenses/by proportion of the agreed fee as set out in your client care letter.

26.2 We may be entitled to keep all of your documents and deeds while there is money owing to us (including charges and disbursements which have not yet been billed).

26.3 We may end this contract (and therefore cease acting for you) in relation to any matter or all of your matters. We will only do this where we believe we have a good reason and upon informing you in writing, giving you reasonable notice of our decision. Examples of a good reason include:

- a) where you have not given us sufficient instructions;
- b) where you have not provided appropriate evidence of identification;
- c) where we reasonably believe that the relationship between you and us has broken down;
or
- d) it comes to our attention that you/individuals controlling the entity are/become a 'designated person' (i.e. a sanctioned individual or entity) part-way through the matter or we have concerns about acting for you for reasons relating to the UK sanctions regime more generally. Please note - if we decide that it is appropriate to apply for a licence from the Office of Financial Implementation ('OFSI') to continue acting for you or to request guidance from them as to how to proceed, all paid work on your matter will be suspended until the licence is granted. If such circumstances arise, we will clearly communicate to you the reason why we are taking this course of action.
- e) linked to the above, if our bank declines to deal with funds relating to your transaction (this may occur even if we have obtained a licence from OFSI to continue acting).

26.4 If your matter does not conclude, or we are prevented from continuing to act because of our legal obligations or professional rules, we will charge you for any work we have actually done. Our charges will be based on our hourly rates applicable at that time (and where a fixed fee has been agreed, the charges will not exceed that fixed fee).

26.5 If we cease acting for you, we shall (where relevant) inform the court or tribunal that we no longer act for you and shall apply to be removed from their records. We may charge you for doing so at our hourly rates applicable at that time.

- 26.6 If we do have to cease acting for you, to the extent permitted by law and our professional obligations we will explain your options for pursuing the matter and will work with you to minimise disruption to your matter or matters.
- 26.7 In any event we will be considered to have ceased acting for you:
- a) upon our completion of the specific services that you have retained us to perform, or
  - b) when more than six months have elapsed from the last time we furnished any billable services to you.
- 26.8 The fact that we may inform you from time to time of developments in the law which may be of interest to you, by email, newsletter or otherwise, should not be understood as a revival of a lawyer-client relationship. We have no obligation to inform you of such developments in the law unless we are specifically engaged to do so.
- 27 Cancellation rights
- 27.1 If you are an individual consumer (and not a business entity) and if our contract with you is a 'distance contract' or an 'off premises contract', you have the right to cancel this contract within 14 days from the day of the conclusion of the contract (the 'cancellation period'). However, if you are unsure whether these cancellation rights apply to you, please contact us immediately upon receipt of these terms.
- 27.3 Please refer to the cancellation notice at the end of these terms for further information about your right to cancel and the conditions attached to the same.
- 27.4 Where cancellation rights apply under these regulations, we will not start work on your file for 14 days from the day of the conclusion of the contract because the regulations prevent us from doing so unless you instruct us otherwise. If you would like our service to start within 14 days of the day of the conclusion of the contract, please complete and return to us the Cancellation Waiver section of document (QR CORP 2079 Notice of Consumer Right to Cancel V1) provided as part of your client care documentation.
- 27.5 Once we have started work on your file within the cancellation period, on your instruction, you will be charged for any work done if you then cancel your instructions. You will have to pay us an amount which is proportionate to the work completed until we receive notice of cancellation from you, in comparison with the full coverage of this contract. These charges will be applied on the same basis as set out in clause 0 of these terms and where a fixed fee has been agreed, the charges will not exceed that fixed fee.
